TERMS

With the completion of the Transfer on Death Beneficiary Designation Form, DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc., as transfer agent for the Dodge & Cox Funds, will register your account as a Transfer on Death (TOD) account. Massachusetts law allows DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. to register your account in TOD form because DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc., as transfer agent for the account, is located in Massachusetts. Massachusetts law also allows DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. to refuse to register accounts as TOD or to adopt rules governing TOD registrations.

This form is intended to provide you with notice of the rules, adopted by DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc., which govern your TOD account. These rules have been established by DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. and govern the acceptance and execution of TOD directions by DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. under Massachusetts law.

DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc., which is not obligated to implement TOD registrations, will establish a TOD registration only upon the terms and conditions outlined herein.

Only simple beneficiary designations will be accepted for TOD directions (see no. 5 below). Complicated directions should be accomplished through a Will or Trust.

By providing you with these rules, DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. does not intend to give, and is not giving any advice as to the legal effect of a TOD registration under applicable state laws governing inheritance and probate procedures. Since TOD directions do effect the disposition of your property at death, you should consult with your attorney to make certain that the directions are consistent with your estate planning and tax planning objectives.

These rules are established by DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. and may be canceled or amended from time to time by DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. upon prior written notice to you.

CONDITIONS

1. The account owners(s) may designate one, or more than one, beneficiary of the TOD account. Beneficiaries are not "account owners" as the term is used herein. DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. must receive a Social Security Number for each designated beneficiary in order to ensure that the account is transferred to the appropriate person or persons upon the death of the last surviving account owner.
2. The account owner may designate primary and alternate beneficiaries of the TOD account. Primary beneficiaries are the first in line to receive the account upon the death of the account owner. Alternate beneficiaries receive the account upon the death of the account owner(s) if, and only if, there are no surviving primary beneficiaries and per stirpes designation was not elected. The account owner is not required to designate any alternate beneficiaries.
3. Minors may be beneficiaries of a TOD account. Under the Uniform Transfer to Minors Act (UTMA), minors may be designated as TOD beneficiaries. Under the Uniform Gift to Minors Act (UGMA), minors may not be named as TOD beneficiaries, as a gift under UGMA requires a living donor.
4. Beneficiaries have no rights in the account until the death of the account owner or last surviving account owner.
5. The TOD registration can only be used for an individual or joint tenant (with rights of survivorship) account. TOD registration is not available for tenants in common, community property registrations, or non-natural persons (e.g., corporations, trusts, and associations). TOD registration is also not available to IRA(s); however, IRA owners may designate beneficiaries by completing the IRA Beneficiary Designation Form.

6. The Transfer on Death Beneficiary Designation Form must be signed by all account owners.
7. An account owner or all joint account owners may revoke or change a beneficiary designation. Change or revocation should be made by completing the Transfer on Death Beneficiary Designation Form and requires:
- a. Endorsement by all account owners;
 - b. Instructions indicating either a new form of registration or designating the new TOD beneficiary(ies); and
 - c. If shares are held in certificate form, the certificates must be attached to the completed Transfer on Death Beneficiary Designation Form.
8. The language in the TOD account registration shall control at all times. The person or persons listed as the beneficiaries of the account shall remain the beneficiaries of the account. Events subsequent to the registration of the account as a TOD account shall not change either the rights of the persons designated as beneficiaries or the status of the account as a TOD account, unless DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. is expressly instructed by the account owner(s) to change the status of the account or the beneficiary designation prior to the account owner's death.
- a. Divorce. If the account owner designated his or her spouse as a TOD beneficiary, and subsequently the account owner and the beneficiary are divorced, the fact of the divorce will not automatically revoke the beneficiary designation. If the account owner wishes to revoke the beneficiary designation, the account owner must notify DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. of the desired change in writing.
 - b. Will or other testamentary document. The beneficiary designation may not be revoked by the account owner(s) by the provisions of a Will or a codicil to a Will.
 - c. Dividends, interest, capital gains, and other distributions after the account owner's death:
 - 1) Accruals (undistributed earnings) of the account which occur after the death of the account owner (or last surviving joint owner) when it is reregistered to the beneficiary(ies) stay with the account and pass to the beneficiary or beneficiaries.
 - 2) Where the account has been coded for cash distributions, and such distributions have actually been paid out prior to notice to DST Asset Manager Solutions, Inc. of the death of the account owner, such distributions are deemed to be the property of the estate of the original account owner and do not pass with the account to the designated beneficiaries.
9. TOD registrations may not be made irrevocable.
